HELP SHAPE PARTY POLICY

The Conservative Policy Forum (CPF) is a great way to get your voice heard. It gives Conservative Members the chance to discuss the major policy challenges facing Britain, and come up with solutions.

CPF groups meet locally to hear what their members have to say. They then report back to the centre on what their members think. And with Oliver Letwin as Chairman of the CPF, you can be sure that these reports reach the highest levels of the Party.

Email BCA@BracknellConservatives.com if you would like to help shape this Party's future.

TAKE PART IN SOCIAL ACTION

Doing your bit, playing your part, getting stuck in. However you describe it, Social Action is a huge part of the Conservative Party and is about making a positive difference to our communities

Local Associations across the country run a huge range of projects – from the small to the large, the one-off to those that run and run. Anything and everything from mentoring schemes, to cleaning up the local park, setting up a sports coaching sessions for local children and helping elderly people with their shopping.

STAND FOR COUNCIL

Becoming a Councillor is a most rewarding experience. It gives you the opportunity to help your local community, gain political experience, and develop useful skills in public speaking and problem solving.

New Councillors bring fresh ideas and fresh enthusiasm to local politics

We have a fantastic Affinity Programme to reward our Members and Friends with discounts on a wide range of products. Lots of great companies have signed up to the programme, and you can get money off everything from books, plants and toys, to bikes, holidays, and Fairtrade products.
